Piccadilly named ‘Best Restaurant to Take the Whole Family’

NEW ORLEANS, La., (September 8, 2009) – Piccadilly Restaurants, LLC was recently awarded the title of “Best Restaurant to Take the Whole Family,” by New Orleans’ Gambit Weekly readers in their Best of 2009 issue. With the $4.99 menu and 99 cent kids meals, a family of four can eat at Piccadilly for less than $12.

“When you’re picking a family-friendly restaurant, pick a dilly,” smiled Jerry Romig, a life-long Piccadilly patron. “That’s been our family slogan for years. Good food that’s reasonably priced to feed the whole family.”

“Piccadilly has been a family institution since its beginning in 1944,” said Piccadilly CFO Tom Sandeman. “We are very proud to receive Gambit’s generous title.”

One of the nation’s largest Southern, home-style restaurant chains, Piccadilly has served millions of fresh, well-balanced meals to the New Orleans community. Piccadilly offers $4.99 meals every day, which include an entrée, two sides and bread. In an effort to expand guests’ value even more, kids, twelve and younger, can eat for 99 cents all day every Thursday, and Saturdays from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m., with the purchase of an adult meal. Standard kids’ meals start at Piccadilly’s everyday low price of $3.99.
